

Published: 19th February 2019

Honour for city doctor

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD

Dr. P. Raghu Ram, president-elect of the Association of Surgeons of India and Director, KIMS-Ushalakshmi Centre for Breast Diseases will be conferred the prestigious Honorary Fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand- FRCS (Thailand).

The Fellowship will be conferred at the 44th annual Congress of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand to be held in Pattaya in July, 2019, according to a letter received by Dr.Raghu Ram from Prof. Tanaphon Maipang, President of Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand. With this Dr.Raghu

Dr. P. Raghu Ram, president-elect of the Association of Surgeons of India

Ram will achieve the rare distinction to be conferred FRCS from five Surgical Royal Colleges - London, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ireland - in addition to FACS from the American College of Surgeons.

Telangana Today

Published: 15th February 2019

Rare honour for city doctor

CITY BUREAU

Hyderabad

Director of city-based KIMS-Ushalakshmi Centre for Breast Diseases, Dr P Raghu Ram, is to be conferred the prestigious Honorary Fellowship of The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand - FRCS (Thailand) at the 44th Annual Congress of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, to be held in Pattaya in July.

A communication to this effect was received by Dr Raghu Ram who is also the president elect of the Association of Surgeons of India, from Professor Tanaphon Maipang, president of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand on Thursday.

Track record

With a distinguished track record of having already obtained FRCS from all the Surgical Royal Colleges in the British Isles, i.e., London, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ireland, the conferment of FRCS (Thailand) would make Dr Raghu Ram achieve the rare distinction to be conferred FRCS from five Surgical Royal Colleges in addition to FACS from the American College of Surgeons, according to a press release.

The conferment of FRCS (Thailand) will make Dr Raghu Ram achieve the rare distinction to be conferred 5 FRCS

The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand (RCST) is the central scientific and educational organisation for surgery of all surgical specialties in Thailand. Founded in 1975, it grew to become a well recognised and respectful national and international surgical organisation, the release added.

Rare distinction for city-based surgeon

THE HANS INDIA | Feb 16, 2019 , 01:51 AM IST

Rare Distinction for city based surgeon

Hyderabad: Dr P Raghu Ram, President-elect of the Association of Surgeons of India, and Director of KIMS-Ushalakshmi Centre for Breast Diseases, would be conferred the Honorary Fellowship of The Royal College of Surgeons (FRCS) of Thailand. The Fellowship would be conferred on the surgeon at the 44th Annual Congress of The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, in Pattaya in July.

Prof. Tanaphon Maipang, president of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, informed this in a letter to Dr Ram. With this, Dr Ram will achieve the rare distinction to be conferred FRCS from five Surgical Royal Colleges in addition to FACS from the American College of Surgeons. He has obtained FRCS from the Surgical Royal Colleges in the British Isles (London, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ireland).

"I am humbled and grateful for being handpicked by The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand for this prestigious honour. I dedicate this award to my motherland, patients and family," said Dr Ram. In a career spanning 24 years, Dr. Ram established breast health centre, creating awareness about the importance of its early detection and implemented South Asia's largest population-based breast cancer screening programme. He also set up a dedicated Breast Surgical Society to improve the art and science of breast surgery in the country.

Business Standard

Raghu Ram to be conferred Honorary Fellowship of FRCS,Thailand

Press Trust of India | Hyderabad Last Updated at February 14, 2019 20:05 IST

City-based cancer surgeon Dr P Raghu Ram would be conferred the Honorary Fellowship of The Royal College of Surgeons (FRCS) of Thailand at a function to be held at Pattaya in July.

Dr Raghu Ram, also a Padma Shri and B C Roy awardee, will be conferred the fellowship at the 44th Annual Congress of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, a release said.

A letter in this regard was received by Raghu Ram on Thursday from Prof Tanaphon Maipang, President of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, it said.

"The conferment of FRCS (Thailand) in July 2019 will make Dr Raghu Ram achieve the rare distinction to be conferred FRCS from five Surgical Royal Colleges in addition to FACS from the American College of Surgeons," it said.

Dr Raghu Ram is director of city-based KIMS-Ushalakshmi Centre for Breast Diseases, and the President of the Association of Surgeons of India.

"I am most humbled and grateful for being handpicked by The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand for this very prestigious honour. I dedicate this award to my motherland, patients and family," he said in the release.

OUTLOOK

14 FEBRUARY 2019 Last Updated at 11:28 PM | SOURCE: IANS

Breast surgeon Ram to be conferred FRCS of Thailand body

Hyderabad, Feb 14 Dr. P. Raghu Ram, President-elect of the Association of Surgeons of India, and Director of KIMS-Ushalakshmi Centre for Breast Diseases, would be conferred the Honorary Fellowship of The Royal College of Surgeons (FRCS) of Thailand.

The Fellowship would be conferred on the surgeon at the 44th Annual Congress of The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, in Pattaya in July.

Prof. Tanaphon Maipang, President of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand, informed this in a letter to Dr. Ram.

With this Dr. Ram will achieve the rare distinction to be conferred FRCS from five Surgical Royal Colleges in addition to FACS from the American College of Surgeons.

He has obtained FRCS from the Surgical Royal Colleges in the British Isles (London, Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ireland).

"I am humbled and grateful for being handpicked by The Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand for this prestigious honour. I dedicate this award to my motherland, patients and family," said Dr. Ram.

In a career spanning 24 years, Dr. Ram established breast health centre, creating awareness about the importance of its early detection and implemented South Asia's largest population-based breast cancer screening programme.

He also set up a dedicated Breast Surgical Society to improve the art and science of breast surgery in the country.

The government conferred upon him Padma Shri in 2015. He is also recipient of Dr. B.C. Roy National award.